

MARILEE'S READERS SAY:

Nancy, TV Commercial and Film Producer, Los Angeles and Paris

“Many people travel the world these days, but I’ll bet few absorb the taste, smell, texture, landscape, language, architecture and rhythm of those cities, countries and continents the way Marilee does. She inhales the spirit of a place then exhales it into her blogs for those of us who hope to follow. Or simply want to dream about far off lands.”

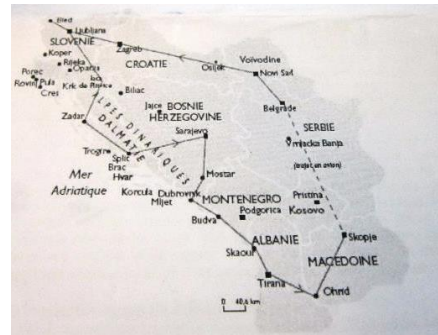

Maria, retired Peace Corps English Program Director, Benin, West Africa

“Finland: As usual, you have brought to life vividly a country that some of us may never visit in our lifetime making us wish we could have lived that experience with you!”

Charlotte, Attorney, Martinique

“The Balkans: Thanks so much for keeping us posted on your incredible travels! I love that you read so many books about the different countries before visiting. Your photos are great as well; they really give an idea of the different countries you visited.”

Bill, Real Estate Developer, Australia

“Egypt and Jordan: Fascinating. You do it so well!!!!!!”

Ray, Instructor, Wooden Boat Building, Washington

“Brazil: It took a while to read because it's long. (She was there a month!) ... But once started, I really got into it. She's such a good writer. She's very concise, no extra words, but she covers a lot!”

Jeff, Professor, Creative Writing, Paris

“Cuba: I loved it! Especially the way the text and images worked. Not just the writing is good but also the photography outstanding. I am very impressed. ... This one is beautiful.”
